DAVIS IS NAMED POLICE CHIEF FOR MORRISVILLE BORO'

Recommendation of Committee is Approved by Borough Council

TO ADD MORE "COPS"

Provides Office for Police Chief Until Nolan's Term Expires

MORRISVILLE, Jan. 18.—The recommendation of Councilman Edward Roberts, chairman of the police committee, that John S. Davis be named chief of police, was approved by council last night. The recommendation will now be forwarded to Morrisville Civil Service Commission for approval. Davis has been serving as acting chief.

A second recommendation by Roberts, seeking a six-man police force in Morrisville, will be held over until the February council session. Under the proposal, the department will consist of a chief, four patrolmen and a parking meter patrolman. The present force is composed of a chief, two patrolmen and a meter man with bridge police acting as fill-ins.

A proposal by Councilman Anthony Greco permitting Tax Collector Harry Christ to use the police department office for business transactions was approved by council after it was pointed out that former Tax Collector Neal Nolan will not complete his business until May 1, when the 1949 tax duplicate is due.

As water rent collector, Christ will need office space between April 1 and May 1, when Morrisville water rents become payable, it was explained.

The council also approved a motion by Greco directing the borough clerk to notify Nolan to vacate the office on May 1.

It was announced last night that the Civil Service Commission will hold an examination for prospective borough policemen in the near future.

AS PENNSYLVANIA MINES WERE IDLED BY STRIKE

ENDING THEIR LAST SHIFT before a strike was called, workers at Montour Mine No. 10, leave the mine at Liberty, Pa. They were among the 80,000 to leave coal pits in six states in defiance of the "suggestion" of John L. Lewis, miners' union chief, that they return to work on a three-day-week basis. It is feared that a complete stoppage will result if Lewis fails to re-establish discipline in the union ranks. (International Soundphoto)

TYPICAL OF THE PITTSBURGH district's critical coal shortage is this rapidly diminishing coal pile of the Duquesne Light Company at Springdale, Pa. Dotted lines indicate the normal boundary of the pile. The situation has become more critical daily following the walk-out of some 45,000 miners in the Pennsylvania area and 80,000 across the nation. Rationing of electricity may become necessary. (International Soundphoto)

William F. Blackburn, Bristol, has been named the defendant in a divorce action by his wife, Helen T. Blackburn. No details are available because the libel was not in the Prothonotary's files.

PERKASIE HAS $8495 FIRE LOSS IN 1949

Retiring Chief Willis Trauger Submits His Annual Report

C. BEER NOW PRES'T

PERKASIE, Jan. 18.—Fire loss for Perkassie borough in 1949 was $8,495, according to the annual report. Willis Trauger, retiring chief, submitted the report.

The firemen responded to 27 calls 15 of which came from the borough and 12 out-of-town calls, during the year.

As usual, grass fires, were the most numerous during the year, but fires in dwellings last year ran a close second to grass fires. Seven times firemen were called to fight grass and brush fires and six times fires in dwellings required the services of the firemen.

The fire apparatus traveled a total of 109 miles in official service and the company spent more than 24 hours in actual fire-fighting during the year. An average of 34 firemen responded to each alarm.

Charles Beer, the new president, took charge of the session after the 1949 officers convened the session, and Rev. Frank Kulp, new chaplain officiated for the first time at the session.

Seven members were dropped from the rolls and two were transferred from the active to the honorary list because they failed to answer at least twenty percent of the calls during the year or failed to attend at least three meetings.

The company authorized a donation of $15 for the Good Will Service of Souderton.

Discourse on Bees Much Appreciated by Club

ANDALUSIA, Jan. 18.—The Bensalem Rotary Club members were treated last evening to a discourse on bees, when Richard Conyne, of Edgely, appeared at the dinner meeting in King hall.

Mr. Conyne informed that "Pollination and honey are useful things that bees provide for us, but credit for the whole colony goes to the queen bee who sometimes is responsible for bringing to life two million other bees."

Questions on bee habits were put to Mr. Conyne by members following the interesting talk, and a rising vote of thanks was accorded the guest.

William States presided at the meeting. He appointed a Boy Scout fund-raising committee of three, namely Sydney Bound, Dr. William Broditch and J. Maurice Tomlinson. The area to be covered by this committee is Cornwells Heights and Edgely.

LATEST NEWS BULLETINS

Offers Huge Reward for Bandits

Chicago—John D. Allen, Sr., head of the Brinks Armored Express Co., offered a $100,000 reward today for the capture of the bandits who stole $1,500,000 from the firm's Boston vaults last night. Allen reportedly added, "We'd rather have them dead."

Boston—Thomas B. Lloyd, chief cashier of the Brinks Express Company in Boston, today told the story of last night's $1,500,000 robbery in these words:

"I had just come out of the vault when I glanced toward the wire mesh cage with the locked gate.

"Seven men—all wearing navy-type pea jackets and Hallowe'en plastic-rubber masks over their faces—stood behind the wire with drawn guns.

"I exclaimed, 'Oh, my God.' They approached very silently. All wore rubbers except one who had on crepe rubber-soled shoes.

Grell (Charles S. Grell, 44, of Arlington, a messenger) was standing near me. I guess we both saw the gunmen at about the same time. When one of the men demanded that we open the door, I told Grell to obey the order.

Grell was armed but it would have been sure death for him to even reach for his gun. There was a nearby rack containing several sawed-off shotguns but it perhaps would have been death for us all if I had reached into the rack.

When the door was opened, the gunmen filed into the room where we were going over the money.

They ordered us to lie face down on the floor. They bound our hands behind our backs and then tied our feet. Then, they put strips of white masking tape over our mouths.

They scooped up the money bags off the little wooden platform carts and dumped them into the larger bags which they brought with them. It was the greatest cash haul in the annals of U. S. crime—so great that the robbers left behind another $1,000,000 because, police said, "they just couldn't carry away any more sacks."

Clergyman, a Native of Hulmeville, Dies in West

HULMEVILLE, Jan. 18.—Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Forker of the death in Oklahoma City, January 9th, of Mr. Forker's cousin, the Rev. Harry Lott, 78, a native of this borough.

The Rev. Mr. Lott was but three years old when his parents, and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Mannington and the Manningtons' three-year-old daughter, left for the West. The Manningtons stopped in Nebraska and took a homestead; while the Lott family continued on to the then new state of Colorado. There the Lott boy grew to manhood and followed religious activity. He spent many years working among the miners and Indians of Colorado. In 1907 he left Colorado and is said to have established the first Pentecostal Church in Oklahoma. In 1911 he founded a home for wayward girls. The Rev. Mr. Lott, who had contemplated a visit to this borough during the coming summer, was the nephew of the late Mrs. Henry Douglass.

The latter and Wallace Mannington were sister and brother. The Manningtons' daughter, Mrs. Ruth Kenyon, spent some time here with Mr. and Mrs. Forker about a year ago. During her visit she told of the 34 years she served as mail carrier between Monroe and Fort Kearney, Neb. The Mannington girl and Lott boy who left Hulmeville more than 70 years ago, had their share in developing the West. Mrs. Ruth Mannington Kenyon still lives on the ranch her parents founded 74 years ago.

The Rev. Mr. Lott visited his aunt, Mrs. Douglass, here, in 1911, and preached in the Hulmeville and Bensalem Methodist churches. He had, throughout his lifetime, aided in spreading the Gospel among the miners and Indians. He had been for 40 years editor of the Oklahoma City News.

LOGAN PUTS ON A ONE-MAN SHOW; HIGH SCHOOL LOSES

TRENTON, Jan. 18.—"Ronny" Logan, lanky forward of the Trenton Catholic High team, put on a one-man show here last night as the Wizards subdued Bristol High, 48-34, in a tilt which saw the Bristol boys actually "blow" a 9-point lead in the second quarter.

Logan, besides being in command of the boards, sank in 20 double-deckers and 3 fouls for 33 points. In the first half, when Trenton Catholic took a 24-20 lead, Logan accounted for 16 points. The stringy Catholic forward also broke up many of the Warriors' plays and made some excellent shots from all positions of the court.

Coach Jerry Bloom's quintet started out fast and took an early 4-0 lead which was reduced to 3 points. Later the lead jumped to 12-5 at the end of the quarter. At the beginning of the second session, Joe Pindar took a pass from "Vic" Cauti which he sank into the net to increase the lead to 14-6. But gradually the Catholic boys began to cut into the lead and with Logan scoring fielder after fielder the Trenton team was four points ahead at the intermission, 24-20.

But that was the extent of the trouble the Warriors gave the Jerseyites, for from then on Catholic made a rain of goals which made its lead grow bigger.

Bristol did some fine shooting in the first half as they made 8 field goals out of 21 tries, hitting the net for a .500 average in the first session with five twin-pointers in ten attempts. Catholic made 10 field goals in the first half but took 42 shots at the baskets.

Joe Pindar led Bristol in scoring with 16 points, while Frank Rich had 12. "Bill" Condit busted up many of the Catholic team's plays, but with Logan scoring and getting the ball most of the time, it was a useless task.

YMCA WINS BOTH GAMES OF A DOUBLE-HEADER

In a basketball doubleheader played at the YMCA last evening the YMCA won two games.

In the first game "Y" youth team laced the Rohm & Haas Boys' Club team 50-27. The "Y" boys, on the rebound from a recent defeat inflicted by the Celtics, played an improved brand of ball. Their ace scorer, "Dick" Kornstedt again led in scoring with 18 points. Manager Fuoco switched Wallick from center to a forward position where he played an excellent defensive game. Norm Slaymaker filled in at center in good style as he totaled 9 points.

In the second game the "Y" adults poured it on the Croydons club in the second half as they overcame a 19-15 half time deficit to win 44-37. The game was marked by numerous fouls. The Croydons made 7 out of 15 free throws, while the Y made 7 out of 14. Again Dave Morrell led the Y in scoring with a total of 15. Bill Cochran and McElroy had 8 each. The Croydons team used five men with Bahr, Rigby and Coates sharing scoring honors.
